Senior Class History

In 1935 thirty bright-eyed pupils, commonly known as freshmen. enrolled in Mendon High School. They chose the following officers:

President ---------- Lewis Fox Treasurer ---------- Lewis Fox
Vice-President --- Elaine Griggs Secretary ------- Claude Brown
Adviser ---------- Miss Cummins

Our only social venture of the year was our initiation, at which we were the guests of honor, as well as the victims, of the Senior Class.

Our Sophomore officers were:

President --------- Mary Crider Secretary ------- Claude Brown
Vice-President ------ Lewis Fox Treasurer ----- Aletha Jean Coil
Adviser ---------- Mr. Smith

Our sophomore year found us with Lewis Fox, Norman Carpenter, Clayton Allen, Claude Brown, Warren Dotson, Mgr., playing basketball, while Vivian Krogman, Lenore Roller, and Ruth Deniston represented the girls in basketball. Joe, Norm, and Lewis also played baseball their second year.

Wayne Mennedy, Donna Spicer, Elaine Griggs, Vivian Krogman, and Mary Crider displayed their musical ability by joining the orchestra.

In September, '38 we were full pledged third-termers with the following officers:

President -------- Elaine Griggs Secretary ----- Vivian Krogman
Vice-President - Wayne Kennedy Treasurer ------- Hazel Burnett
Adviser ---------- Mr. Smith

Our class was again well represented in the various activities, having four basketball players and a manager. Two players on the girls' team, three baseball players, and five orchestra members. Our Junior-Senior reception, held at the Barr Hotel in Lima, and the class play "Meet Uncle Sally" were the main high-lights of the year.

In the last lap of the race nineteen thirty-niners trekked out to reach their goal. The Senior offices were capably filled as follows:

President ----- Wayne Kennedy Secretary ------- Claude Brown
Vice-President ----- Carl Miller Treasurer ---------- Lewis Fox
Adviser ---------- Mr. Smith

Once again we were highly represented in a number of activities. Norman Carpenter and Lewis Fox will leave the basketball and baseball teams. Elaine Griggs, Wayne Kennedy, Aletha Jean Coil, Vivian Krogmna, Carl Miller, and Mary Crider will leave the orchestra. Our class play "Spring Fever" was a success. We were nicely entertained by the junior class at the Junior-Senior reception.

Upon taking our leave, we, the class of '39, thank the faculty and our schoolmates for many pleasant memories.

—Mary Crider

Senior Class Will

We, the Seniors, find it vitally necessary to will one or more of our hard earned properties or characteristics to some needy underclassman.

Clayton Allen wishes to will his typing ability to Louise Price.

Sylvia Boroff wills her position as editor of the school paper to her sister Lois.

Claude Brown wills his public speaking ability to Lafayette Myers.

Hazel Burnett wills her ability to drive a car and ability to type to Mary Ellen Dutton.

Norman Carpenter wills his athletic ability to Richard Heppeard. (He needs it.)

Aletha Jean Coil wills her orchestra book and a worn out ink blotter to whoever wants them.

Mary Crider wills her position as honorary music student to Martha Jane Skinner.

Warren Dotson wills his management ability to Emerson Boyer.

Lewis Fox wills his pencil hooking ability to John Doyce Griggs.

Elaine Griggs wills her ability to win milkshakes and the honor of playing first trumpet to Ruth Ann Dutton.

Roscoe Hamilton wills his ability to work a balanced dairy ration to Dale Hays.

Wayne Kennedy wills his friendliness and ability to shoulder responsibility to the Juniors in general.

Vivian Krogman wills her position as first violin player to Dorothy Hays.

Jessie Nelson wills her flirtation ability to Mary Motycka.

Carl Miller wills his music ability to the orchestra (they'll need it).

Lenore Roller wills her nicknames to Betty Hayman.

Joe Santa wills his ability to get moved, by Miss Holdren to Darrel Fisher.

Donna Spicer wills her shorthand ability to Doyt Faurot.

Genevra Vorhees wills her height to Johnny Maurer.

We hope that the underclassmen appreciate our effort and will profit by their new possessions.

Senior Class Prophecy

"I'm growing old and feeble;
And my head is bending low:
Of that Senior class of '39
I'll tell you all I know.
A popular writer now is Claude,
He captured the public with 'Loves of Maude.'
Aletha got hooked up to some phoney,
We hear she's out on alimony.
Norman, looking for something new,
Has got a job modeling shoes.
Elaine, vocalist on the Melody Maker,
Said she thought he'd ne'er forsake her.
Carl? Do you mean that you don't know?
"Yowsah. Miller, the old Maestro."
Hazel, still ruling with an iron hand,
Is sole dictator of Samoliland.
Lewis bosses a thousand men,
He manufactures fountain pens.
Sylvia married a stranger in town,
And now her name is changed to Brown.
Wayne has retired to a farm,
Shielding Betty from all harm.
Jessie and Bill of course are hitched;
The marriage vows are firmly stitched.
Warren, the man on the flying trapeze,
Had an accident—he had to sneeze.
Donna writes a column every day,
Sob sister stuff—what's that you say?
Clayton?—he went to sea,
No better sailor living than he.
Genevra, Shorty's contented wife,
Says for her that's the only life.
Roscoe sings the cowboy ballads,
Advertising for Mello salads.
Mary is a stern school ma'm;
She goes with a mug by the name of Sam.
Toots is a cowgirl way out West;
Krogman is just about the best.
Lenore is a star on the Great White Way,
She sings and dances on Broadway.
A public speaker now is Joe,
He rants and raves with much gusto.
'My name is Anthony Fishbaugh;
I will not tell you more;'
And as his head dropped lower,
His wig fell on the floor."

Junior Class History

It was a bright morning back in "36" when a small group of big-eyed freshmen mounted the steps which in the past had led into forbidden territory.

Under the careful guidance of the teachers we finally became accustomed to the big world and settled down to the four years ahead of us. At first everything went wrong but as time went on we began to understand what it was all about.

The class became an organization with the election of the following officers:

President ------ Emerson Boyer Secretary --- Delova Hagerman
Vice-President -------- Joe Ross Treasurer -- Mary Ellen Dutton

The class colors chosen were red and silver.

Of course the one big fear of the year was the "initiation". The "Freshies" were greatly scared but at length it was over and we were full pledged members of M. H. S. and eligible to enjoy all of its privileges. The usual parties were enjoyed by the members of the class.

The next year as sophomores we had more confidence, so things did not go so badly. We elected the following officers:

President --- Mary Ellen Dutton Treasurer --- Delova Hagerman
Vice-President --- Albert Custer Secretary -------- Alice Rawley

Now with two difficult years gone we feel that we are ready to soon become seniors and are anxiously awaiting our senior year. Our class officers this year are as follows:

President --------- Doyt Faurot Secretary -------- Alice Rawley
Vice-Pres. --- Delova Hagerman Treasurer ------ Emerson Boyer

Our class play "The King Rides By" was given and proved to be very popular.

Mr. McClure has been our adviser all through the three years and we thank him for helping us and giving us some much needed advice.

Sophomore Class History

In the fall of 1937 twenty-eight students enrolled in the freshman class. With Miss Amstutz as our adviser we elected the following officers:

President ---------- Glen Fox Vice-President -- Dorothy Hays
Secretary and Treasurer ------ Irene Boyer

Our class colors are wine and gold. The main social event of our first year was the "initiation" by the seniors. Although we received a few bruises there were no broken bones and we came out of the ordeal full pledged members of Mendon High.

When we began our sophomore year four of the original members of our class had departed but three new ones joined us, so we had a class that numbered 27.

With Miss Holdren as our adviser, the following officers were chosen:

President ------- Dick Tingley Secretary - Norma Jane Roebuck
Vice-President ---- John Griggs Treasurer ---------- Jean Crites

At the beginning of our sophomore year every member decided to really enter into the school activities. As a result, our class was well represented in all activities. In these we tried to develop ourselves, as well as build up the school.

Basketball 1938-39

Our opening game with the Warriors of Ohio City proved to be a dull, slow affair. Ohio City stalled at every opportunity. The final score was 16-14 in favor of the Warriors. In our second game, Buckland edged the boys, 26-20, in a tight game. Middlepoint withstood a desperate last quarter rally and beat the Bucs, 43-40. The boys played real basketball for the first time in that second half. Mendon won its initial victory of the year with an over time win over Rockford on the Tiger's floor, 24-22. The Pirates then walloped St. Henry for their first league victory, 33-17. The Bucs got revenge on Buckland with a 32-27 win. Lew Fox caged 23 points that night to lead the victory. Mendon continued its winning streak by taking Neptune 31-12 on their "match-box" floor. York was the next victim to the Bucs' winning streak, the locals winning, 42-21. Midway in the third quarter, the score was 36-5, and from there on the Pirates coasted in. The Old Grads got trounced by the lads from the high school, 44-18. Krick scored 13 points for the undergraduates and Lampy caged 8 for the Alumni. Ft. Recovery broke Mendon's winning streak at six straight, 30-19. The score at the half was 15-12, but the Bucs faded badly in the second period. It was the locals first league defeat. The local quintet picked up where they left off and handed St. Johns a walloping to the tune of 39-23. L. Fox scored 12, Carpenter 7, Krick and C. Fox 9 points each. Classy teamwork was displayed. Mendon then defeated St. Marys, a Class A school, in an overtime, 26-24. Coldwater walloped the Pirates in the next tilt, 46-26. Ouch! The Pirates ended their league schedule with an easy 41-23 victory over the I. C. H. S. Spartans. Neptune once again played second fiddle to the Bucs in the final seasonal game, 39-15. Griggs broke loose for nine points, while L. Fox was second with 7 points.

TOURNAMENT RESULTS

Mendon opened their tournament tilts with a furious second-half offensive to top St. Johns, 36-21. Carpenter was on top with 8 points. Coldwater rudely bumped off Mendon, 43-21. Ouch again! The Pirates stayed in the running for the runner-up spot by eking out a victory over Rockford, 29-24. Krick was good for 15 points. Mendon was definitely put out of the running by a grimly fighting band of Spartans, 29-25.

INDIVIDUAL SCORING

Lewis Fox led the M. H. S. quintet with 176 points in nineteen games. Krick was good for 115 counters, C. Fox netted 88, Carpenter 75, and Griggs totaled 64.

Baseball

The Pirate baseball squad opened the fall season of 1938-39 with a veteran team. Coach Smith had the entire first team back from the year before to work with. However, Paul Truesdale, who came from Elida, was able to break into the starting line-up.

The scores for the fall season were:

Mendon	9	St. Henry	1
Mendon	4	York	3
Mendon	10	St. Henry	0
Mendon	3	Uptown Coaches	0

Lew Fox pitching, with Norman Carpenter catching, proved to be too tough for the opposing batters. St. Henry was held to two hits in two games and York to five hits, while the Uptown Coaches were able to get but one hit off the southpaw pitches of Fox.

The infield was made up of Art Krick at first, Steve Fox at second, Joe Santa at short, and Paul Truesdale at third. Glen Fox and Doyt Faurot were the utility infielders.

The outfielders were Jake Griggs in center, Jack Miller in right, and Albert Custer in left. Robert Sullinger and Emerson Boyer were the substitute outfielders.

Claude Brown was the very capable manager.

Lew Fox, Art Krick, and Paul Truesdale, were the most consistent hitters, although some of the others hit quite often in the pinches.

The team will have to play good ball and display plenty of fight in order to go through the spring schedule undefeated since several formidable teams are on the schedule. This spring we oppose Ridge, St. Henry, Coldwater, Celina Public, Ft. Recovery and St. Marys.

The Future Farmers of America organization has been organized from the boys enrolled in vocational agriculture under the auspices of the State association of the Future Farmers of America. Primarily, the group's main objective is to strive for community leadership. The meetings held twice each month are opened and closed with a formal ceremony. The meetings are carried on in a business-like form with the express purpose of learning parliamentary procedure.

During the year, several trips have been taken to get a more practical outlook on their future vocation of farming. Judging tours on study of fine livestock have proven very successful. Several activities the club participates in during the year are Farmers' Institute, school assembly programs, community clean up and pest hunt, beautifying the schoolground, erection of flag pole, and sponsoring hybrid corn sales in the community.

The main event of the year was December 14, when the boys were hosts to their parents at a banquet in their honor at the school house. Eighty-five persons were in attendance. Reverend Bair of Rockford and C. S. Hutchinson of Columbus were the main speakers of the occasion. The meal was served by the Home Economics Club. Wayne Kennedy was toastmaster for the occasion.

We will finish the year with 26 members. Members of the club include—Lloyd Ellis, Roscoe Hamilton, Harvey Albright, Wayne Kennedy, Max Ellis, Robert Sulilnger, Don Spicer, Arthur Krick, Ellis Meihls, Don Nelson, Dale Hays, Eugene Hook, Berlin Miller, Albert Custer, Carl Putman, John Behm, Don Boroff, Paul Boroff, Eugene Bricker, Robert Clay, Darrell Fisher, Glen Fox, Jack Holtzapple, Neil Roller. At the beginning of this school year, we organized our club with Miss Hissong as our adviser. We elected the following officers to guide us through the year:

President ---------- Hazel Burnett
Vice-President ---------- Eileen Hayman
Secretary and Treasurer ------ Irene Truesdale

Our organization met every fourth Friday and we endeavored to have short talks by each of the members on selected subjects of interest. Also, we would incorporate programs into our regular meet ings and the latter part of the year was spent in sewing and knitting.

We also took part in several outside activities. We served the F. F. A. banquet on December 14, at which the F. F.A. boys entertained their parents. At Christmas time we had a party with the F. F. A. Club and we exchanged gifts.

I'm sure that under the supervision of Miss Hissong, we have had a very good time and we have learned a number of new things.

Newspaper Club

At the beginning of the school year the members of the Newspaper Club decided to publish a school paper each week free of charge. Electing Sylvia Boroff as editor, and being under the supervision of Miss Holdren and Miss Freeman, we have faithfully tried to publish a worthwhile paper to inform our fellow-pupils and the general public of the future and past events each week.

Throughout the year we have tried to the best of our ability to publish a better paper, with variations of all sorts each week in order to omit any repetition that sometimes may occur.

There have been twelve faithful and studious helpers during the entire year and each one deserves special praise and comment. The editor, Sylvia Boroff, proved to be a very capable leader, and also served as one of the typists. Joe Santa, the Boys' Sport Editor, adds humor and witticism to the paper and earns an extra credit. Mary Crider, the Humor Editor, adds much humor by her writing personality and acts as one of the typists. Max Ellis, the F. F. A. Reporter, faithfully serves the staff by keeping us informed of the ever-active F. F. A. boys.

The other helpers include Louise Price, who acts as part-time Humor Editor, Jean Crites, Lois Boroff, Maxine Millisor, who keeps us informed of the "Freshies", Dorothy Hays, Marjorie Protsman, Delova Hagerman, and Martha Jane Skinner.

We also must not forget our supervisors who give us new ideas, new subjects of interest and help us in every way possible.
